ROCKWOOD SCHOOL DISTRICT (RSD) BIDS

The Rockwood School District (the District) is requesting bids for the 2018-2019 annual service recognition program. Rockwood will consider multi-year proposals with guaranteed pricing for a term of three years or more should it be in the best interest of the District. A professional services agreement will be required for any multi-year awards.

TYPE OF EMPLOYEE SERVICE AWARD PROGRAM REQUESTED:

The Rockwood School District is requesting a program in which the employee chooses his/her own gift from a selection of gifts within the same price range for a specified service award level. These award levels should begin at the 15-year level and continue at every 5-year interval through and including 40 years of service. The award selection program is emailed directly to the employee's work email by the service award vendor. We are requesting the Retiree gifts to be a common gift (a clock in recent years). The RSD service award program budget range is $10,000 - $14,000.

Please use the following information to estimate the 2018-2019 levels and number of awards to calculate your catalog program cost:
